

Hoare, William 1706-1792

Freia Turland Photography

VISIT THE 'MIN' MUSEUM OF HISTORY

The Royal National Hospital for Rheumatic Diseases, Bath houses a museum showcasing its medical history, art and artefacts in relation to its importance to Bath's history since establishment in 1738. 'Beau' Nash, John Wood the Elder, William Hoare and Ralph Allen are amongst the historical figures with ties to the hospital.

The Lecture Hall
RNHRD
Upper Borough Walls
Bath, BA1 1RL

Open every Monday from 2-4pm or by appointment

For more information or to book a visit on days other than Monday please contact fundraising@rnhrd.nhs.uk or 01225 465697 Ext 278

Charity Number 1054247